Dear Donald A. Swentik:

After careful review, we have decided that your registration with the Boy Scouts of America should be suspended. We are therefore compelled to request that you sever any relations that you may have with the Boy Scouts of America.

You should understand that BSA leadership registration is a privilege and is not automatically granted to everyone who applies. We reserve the right to suspend registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not measure up to the high standards of leadership which the BSA seeks to provide for American youth. Please also understand that this decision and the reasons for it will be maintained as confidential.

If you wish to have this decision reviewed, please write to me, explaining your version of the facts supporting your claim that your registration as a BSA leader should be granted or reinstated.

Sincerely yours,

Russell H. Myatt
President

Supervisor Jerry Kearns also said the budget director could be responsible for centralized purchasing which could save the county money.

"I think you're adding an unnecessary $20,000 to your budget. It's totally unnecessary," Brink said, adding that he did not feel a budget director could save the county any money.

"And if he is responsible for centralized purchasing, that means he will have to have one or two clerks," Brink said.

In other matters, the board:

—Approved an appropriation of $1,000 for the 1985-86 fiscal year for the Food Bank of Southern Iowa, Inc., which distributes surplus food provided by industries to various organizations such as food pantries, congregate meal sites and Head Start programs.

—Set March 21 at 4 p.m. to receive bids for petroleum products for the secondary road department and will award a contract at its regular meeting on March 28.

Special guest

DALLAS CITY — The Rev. Haralan Popov of Bulgaria will speak at 7 p.m., Saturday, March 9 at the Grace Bible Church in Dallas City. Rev. Popov, a prisoner in Communist prisons in Bulgaria, is author of the book "Tortured For His Faith." The public is invited to attend.

Correction

The address of Michael Chad Reiter, 19, charged by Fort Madison police with second degree burglary in connection with the burglary Denny's Bike Shop in Fort Madison shop on Feb. 26, is 1425 Avenue G. His address was incorrectly reported in a Daily Democrat news story Feb. 27.

...farm machinery and equipment tax garnered enough support for ...million of new revenue during the next biennium.

Sexual abuse charge is filed

Donald A. Swentik, 35, 906 Avenue G, has been charged with sexual abuse in the third degree.

The charge was filed by Lee County Attorny Mike Short of Keokuk.

According to court documents, the case involves a child during a period of from five to six months beginning around April or May of 1984.

Swentik is free on his own recognizance. A preliminary hearing has been scheduled for March 22 at 11 a.m. in Fort Madison.

services, the Southeast Iowa Area Agency on Aging and the Lee County Activity Center.

The county will be able to fund about $380,000 in requests with carryover money and payments due in April and October, Fraise said.

Among surviving programs are the Lee County Conservation Board, housing for the elderly in Argyle, the 911 emergency system and repairs on both county courthouses.

Two of the representatives who spoke to the delegates, Frank Horton, R-N.Y., and Robert Walker, R-Pa., have introduced bills that will renew revenue sharing at present levels through 1989, and a similar bill in the Senate seeks to continue the program at present levels through 1991.

Dole, R-Kan., told the delegates in a speech Sunday that he is in favor of eliminating the program in fiscal 1987.

Fraise said Evans, a Republican, told Iowa county executives at a breakfast Monday that "he was sure there would be some kind of revenue sharing."

the Hinchliff-Pearson-West Funeral Home.

A memorial is being established with the Covenant Church of Galesburg. Contributions may be made at the Hinchliff-Pearson-West Funeral Home in Galesburg.

Special mass for farmers is set at St. Joseph's

A special mass for farmers' needs will be offered at 10 a.m., Sunday, March 10, at St. Joseph's church in Fort Madison, it has been announced.

"The mass will be for the intention of the difficulties the farmers are experiencing," said the Rev. Paul Budreau, pastor. "Special prayers will be said asking God's help for our farmers in their present difficulties, and for all those in need," he said.

The prayers, he said, will include the novena to St. Isadore, the patron saint of farmers.

Father Budreau said all farmers, Catholic or not, are invited as well as others.

Memorandum reference Donald A. Swentik

On May 31, 1985, Duane Stoyer, Santa Fe Methodist Church Troop 10 Chairman, accompanied me to Mr. Swentik's residence where I hand delivered the Council President's letter suspending Mr. Swentik's registration.

Mr. Swentik invited us into his home and I told him I had a letter to hand deliver to him. Mr. Swentik read the letter and Mr. Stoyer thanked him for his past service to the troop.

We took our leave and Mr. Swentik asked me if I knew the final disposition, and I said no.

After leaving Swentik's I checked with Peter W. Hansen, Assistant County Attorney. He informed me that the Swentiks received a "Deferred Judgement" -- two years probation -- must participate in a counseling program -- at the end of two years with no problems the record will be erased.

He had pleaded "no contest" to the charge of "Indecent Contact". Court case #CR 1086 and CR 11102, District Court, Lee County, City of Fort Madison, Iowa.
